Acceptance and Arrival

If your application is successful, we will send out an email confirmation with the acceptance documents attached. From there, the following steps must be taken:

Accepting or declining the offer The Confirmation of Place (COP) must be returned to us bearing your original signature. We will then send you any required visa letters and grant access to the accommodation application portal (if applicable).

Applying for a visa Once you have received the visa documentation issued by ourselves, you can apply for a visa. Visas are effective for the specified time period from the date issued, so applications must be made at the following times:

- Semester 1 entry: mid-August 2019 onwards.
- Semester 2 entry: mid-December 2019 onwards.

Students studying for a full year exchange must apply for a Tier 4 visa. Students studying for a single semester must apply for a Short-term study visa. Unless you have British or EU citizenship, there are no exceptions to this requirement.

The visa application must be made from your home country. If you have any queries regarding the application process, please contact our visa team at visa@ncl.ac.uk.

Applying for accommodation Students have the option of applying for accommodation in university residences. Students studying for the full year are guaranteed university accommodation, whereas single-semester students are not. For an overview of the University's accommodation sites, please refer to the following link:

<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/>

Once your application has been approved, you can apply using your 9-digit student number by following the link below:

<https://accommodation.ncl.ac.uk/apply/>

Due to high demand we are unable to guarantee first choices, but will endeavour to meet needs where appropriate. If a student has a disability which informs their accommodation choice, it MUST be disclosed. If you do not disclose a disability and later request a room change, it may not be possible to accommodate your request.

Private sector accommodation If you are applying for private accommodation (due to an unsuccessful application or preference), more information can be found at the link below:

<http://www.ncl.ac.uk/accommodation/private/>

Module registration Module registration is completed on arrival in Newcastle. Your module choices as specified on your application are taken into consideration, but we are unable to guarantee first choices. If we are unable to accommodate first choices, we will suggest suitable replacements. The date and time of the module registration session will be provided closer to the date of arrival.

International Welcome We host a welcome programme before the start of classes to help students settle into life in Newcastle. This includes a free airport pickup service, information sessions and social activities. You can find more information about our International Welcome Programme here: <https://www.ncl.ac.uk/pre-arrival/international/>.

A multi-faceted city

A Cultural City

Newcastle offers a diverse cultural scene, architectural beauty, history and world-famous nightlife. The city has excellent transport links with an international airport, and London is only a 3 hour journey away by train. From the city centre it is only a short bus or train ride to the countryside, where you can explore the area's breathtaking scenery and coastline.
